

Conferences conducted by the International and Business Law Department in 2012

Presentation of the Textbook

On June 12, 2012 at the Hyatt Hotel the Department of International and Business law along with Tian Shan Policy Center and Fulbright association of the Kyrgyz Republic successfully presented the Textbook “Contemporary International law: materials and cases”. This academic book was prepared especially for local professor who teach International law with an aim to capture both the foundational principles on which our international legal system depends, and normative frameworks representing future legal trends.

Presentation of the Manual

On October 12, 2012 the Department successfully presented the manual on “Правовое регулирование придомовых земельных участков в Кыргызской Республике” where the representatives of various state agencies, Bishkek mayor’s office, legal clinics of local Universities and NGO`s have taken an active participation. As a result of the presentation and discussion, the legal clinic of IBL department has received several cases from NGO sector on the issue discussed during presentation upon which it is going to work during 2012-2013 academic year.